At The Star Theatre.

In addition to the regular program at the Star Theatre Monday night, Manager F. S. Garrison exhibited a reel showing the work in the Ford automobile factory. The reel is very instructive in showing the system in a large factory and it was astonishing to see how fast Ford cars are turned out.

It would not be a bad idea for the Star to show other features of a similar nature, for then one could enjoy an inspection trip through a large factory while waiting for his usual hour of retirement and thereby broaden his knowledge of things.

A Strange Coincidence.

Tuesday morning about breakfast time the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Lacy told her mother that she had not slept well the night before and had dreamed that her Cousin Vernor King's barn burned. The family had scarcely left the breakfast table when the alarm of fire was given and the child's dream came true.

Was this merely a coincidence or a psychic phenomenon? Who can say?

The Odd Fellows.

At the regular meeting of the local lodge of Odd Fellows Thursday night one candidate was elected to receive the initiatory degree and two applications for membership were received, one by card and one by initiation. The attendance was large, considering there was a show in town on the same evening, and the interest was keen and appreciative.

The District Deputy Grand Master of District No. 159A paid an official visit to the lodge and in a few brief remarks complimented the membership on their interest in the lodge work and the lodge on its evidences of continued growth and prosperity, and counseled the members to strive to live up to that ideal of an unselfish life so beautifully exemplified in the story of the friendship of David and Jonathan and the unfeigned love and charity of the good Samaritan.

After the lodge closed, the members enjoyed a delicious feast of cake—prepared by the generous wives of some of the members—and ice cream.

All present had a most enjoyable evening, and Odd Fellowship in Hondo is better for it.

Barn Burns.

A large, two story barn, belonging to V. P. King, in the northwest part of town, caught a little before 8 o'clock Tuesday morning from some unknown cause and burned to the ground together with all its contents.

When discovered, the flames were rapidly spreading through the hay loft and, before help could reach the scene, had gained such headway as to be beyond control. The fire company responded with all of the apparatus but could accomplish nothing more than prevent the spread of the fire to other buildings.

The barn was filled with hay, milo maize, cotton seed, etc., and together with some harness, tools, etc. represent a loss of about a thousand dollars. Mr. King had about $350 insurance on the building.

Fortunately Mr. King had not gathered his corn or it too would have been burned.

Representative Hornby Writes.

To the Citizens of Uvalde, Medina, Dimmit and Zavala Counties:

The Governor has convened the 33rd Legislature in a third special session and submitted to us the enactment of a law creating "The Bank of Texas."

It is proposed that the State Board of Education shall subscribe to the capital stock of the Bank of Texas on behalf of the Permanent Scool Fund of Texas to the amount of $17,800,000.00 and that the State Bank of Texas shall be required to subscribe to said capital stock of The Bank of Texas five per cent of their capital stock and surplus. It is estimated that this will give to the said Bank of Texas a working capital stock of at least $20,000,000.00.

The purposes of this Bill as stated in Section 2 of the Bill are as follows:

"Sec. 2. The purpose of the creation of The Bank of Texas is to provide a fiscal agency for the State, its counties, municipal corporation and all districts heretofore or hereafter created, with the power to levy and collect taxes and issue bonds or to expend the public funds, to the end that the fiscal officers of the State and its various governmental agencies may administer their affairs on a sound financial basis, maintain all warrants at par, find a ready and sufficient market for bonds and other obligations, obtain cash against unmatured and uncollected tax levies, and, generally, to furnish an agency of sufficient capital and authority to maintain the financial affairs of the State and its various governmental agencies in a sound and efficient manner;

To furnish a safe and lucrative investment for the permanent school fund of the State, with a definite and certain return;

To enable the holders of all school warrants drawn against the available school fund, uncollected at the time of their issuance, to obtain cash thereon without discount thereof;

To provide a reserve bank in aid of the general banking system of the State; to assist in maintaining the solvency of the banks chartered in the State of Texas and to preserve intact the Depositors' Guaranty Fund; to prevent the sacrifice of a large part of the products of the industry now impending and due to calamities and exigencies of war; to maintain the integrity of the actual values of the products of industry during the present period of financial disturbance, to the end that taxes may be collected and taxable values be maintained; to enable the people of the State generally to obtain their ratable and proper distribution of currency issued or authorized to be issued by the national government or authorized to be made by it; to preserve the normal business conditions of the State against the present disturbances brought about by the wars on the continent of Europe and to guard against the repetition of like disturbance due to that or any other cause; and, generally, to preserve the credit and industrial and financial integrity of the State."

I shall be glad to forward a copy of the bill to anyone interested, and would appreciate any comments regarding this bill. It is a measure of importance and I would like to know the wishes of the people of my district regarding this far reaching measure. Yours very truly,

H. P. HORNBY.

New Fountain Notes.

A nice rain, sufficient to settle the dust, fell here yesterday evening. A strong north wind has been blowing all day today, which brought quite a change in the temperature.

Mrs. Augusta Bohmfalk returned today from a week's visit to her daughter, Mrs. L. R. Neumann, at Elstone.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Buss visited F. D. Neumann and family Sunday.

Millinery Openings.

Hondo's three millinery emporiums had very successful openings for the fall season Thursday. The rain had settled the dust and the sudden advent of cooler weather made it both pleasant for the ladies to shop and awakened in their minds thoughts of winter headwear.

The hats on display this season are beautiful creations, running more to simple design and less to freakishness than for several seasons past.

All three of the stores report good business on their opening days and are pleased with the outlook for a good trade.

The Minstrel Show.

A fair-sized crowd turned out to the Auditorium Thursday night to see Dr. Fletcher's burnt-cork artists.

The show was a success both financially and otherwise. A good program was rendered, consisting of songs, jokes, dances and motion pictures.

A pleasing feature of the night's entertainment was the song, "This is the Life for Me", by Master Buster Taylor, a nephew of Dr. and Mrs. Fletcher. "Buster" whistled the same song, and, believe me, he's some mocking bird!

Each member of the cast acquitted themselves creditably.

Mr. Garrison had his picture machine there and showed three good reels.

Miss Kate Saathoff delivered a beautiful violin solo.

The personnel of the troupe: Dr. and Mrs. Fletcher, Misses Locklin, Schuehle, Harris, Saathoff and Ruth Rothe, Messrs. Gray, Herweck, Licklider, Callaham, Johnson, Kimmey, Taylor and Master Buster Taylor.

The minstrel was given for the benefit of the Mothers' Club and the base ball team and each realized quite a neat sum therefrom.

Ten Cent Cotton.

Galveston, Sept. 21.—All South Texas farmers--tenant farmers preferably--who desire to sell a single bale of cotton at 10c a pound, middling basis, f. o. b. Galveston, are now invited to send their names and addresses to the Galveston Commercial Association. The "Buy a Bale of Cotton" movement has received endorsement by the Association's Committee on Traffic & Commerce, and a concerted effort is now being made to get a list of names of both buyers and sellers. The city of Galveston will be thoroughly canvassed for buyers.

Applications from all farmers desirous of selling a single bale on these terms will be numbered consecutively as they are received by the Association. The names of Galvestonians who will buy a bale will also be numbered consecutively as they are obtained. The bale of farmer No. 1 will be delivered to buyer No. 1 by the Association. Any needed information about details of buying or shipping will be furnished by the Association without charge. But one bale from any farmer will be handled on this basis. Shipping papers with the cotton should be accompanied by an affidavit that the seller grew the cotton.

The movement is planned primarily to benefit farmers who find it hard to hold their cotton. The complete cooperation of all concerned should result in removing from the market a large quantity of South Texas distress cotton.

Don't Take Wrong Medicine.

If your liver gets lazy you need a liver tonic, not merely a laxative for the bowels. Many people take a simple laxative when the liver gets sluggish rather than take calomel, which they know to be dangerous. But a mere laxative will not start a sluggish liver. What is needed is a tonic that will liven up the liver without forcing you to stay at home and lose a day from your work.

You have such a tonic in Dodson's Liver Tone. Dodson's Liver Tone is all that is claimed for it, because the druggists who sell it agree to hand back the money with a smile, to any person not satisfied with the relief Dodson's gives Dodson's Liver Tone is a vegetable liquid with a very pleasant taste and is a prompt and reliable remedy for constipation, biliousness, sour stomach and torpid liver.

W. H. Windrow gives it his personal guarantee. Large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone is only 50 cents. For children or grown people it is the ideal medicine. Try it on the guarantee.

The Scoffers.

If you listen to the doubters and the scoffers on the way
You will never rise to glory or to fame;
If you weakly give up trying just because of what they say
You will never be a leader in the game.
They will hinder you and hamper you in every way they can;
At the goal that you are striving for they'll jeer,
But do not get discouraged, plod along and be a man,
And soon you'll hear the doubters start a cheer.

For the doubters and the scoffers are against whatever's new,
And failure is the thing that they foresee;
They spend their days in telling what a youth will never do
And they never help him win a victory.
They're against the youth who's trying till they see that he has won,
And the only thing they ever do is sneer,
Till they suddenly discover the impossible's been done,
Then they rush to be the first to give a cheer.

THE frequency of barn fires in this section and the heavy losses sustained by having large quantities of feed, numbers of implements, vehicles, etc., destroyed at one fell swoop prompts the suggestion that there is neither wisdom or economy in the large barns one sees now-a-days where all of the farm's provender is stored in one compact mass. To be sure, it is a matter of great convenience to have every thing in easy reach—under the same shelter—but, after all, is not the risk of having one's sustenance all destroyed too great to justify the convenience? Would it not be better to have separate corn-houses, separate hay-ricks, and separate vehicle and implement sheds? It looks that way to this paper, and we believe the fire-insurance writers would agree with us.

Splendid Medicine Stomach Trouble

I Suffered for Several Years Peruna Restored My Health

Mrs. Elizabeth Reuther, No. 508 Twelfth St., N. W., Washington, D. C., writes: "I am pleased to endorse Peruna as a splendid medicine for catarrh and stomach trouble, from which I suffered for several years. I took it for several months and at the end of that time found my health was restored and have felt splendidly ever since. I now take it when I contract a cold and it soon rids the system of any catarrhal tendencies.

Over Ten Years Ago.

"I would not be without Peruna. Although it was over ten years ago that I first gave you my testimonial, I am of the same opinion as when I wrote it, and give you the privilege to use it as you see fit. I still use Peruna when I think it necessary. I am recommending it to my neighbors whenever a chance occurs."

IT would be wise to destroy the cotton stalks all over the country as soon as the crop is gathered. There are two good economic reasons for this. In the first place, the old stalks will continue to put on forms, until frost destroys the vitality of the plant, thereby furnishing an incubator for hatching out millions of boll-weevils which, in turn, will find a natural place in the old stalks to hibernate and shelter during the winter months and come forth ready to begin anew the work of devastation next spring. In the second place, the plant food which will produce the growth of the plant after it is too late for the forms to mature represents just so much waste of soil fertility that needs to be conserved for future crops. There are two very effective ways of destroying the cotton stalks. One which appeals to the man with cattle to feed is to pasture the stubble. This has the disadvantage of robbing the soil of almost all of its humus, having the land packed by the cattle and leaving much of the old stalk still standing to shelter the boll weevils. The better plan is to plow the stalks under, turning them completely under if possible, while green. The earlier and more effectively this is done the better rotted will be the vegetable matter when you go to prepare for next year's seeding, the more humus will have been returned to the soil and fewer harboring places will be left for the weevils. By all means destroy all cotton stubble and do it as early as possible.

RHEUMATISM ARRESTED

Many people suffer the tortures of lame muscles and stiffened joints because of impurities in the blood, and each succeeding attack seems more acute until rheumatism has invaded the whole system.

To arrest rheumatism it is quite as important to improve your general health as to purify your blood, and the cod liver oil in Scott's Emulsion is nature's great bloodmaker, while its medicinal nourishment strengthens the organs to expel the impurities and upbuild your strength.

Scott's Emulsion is helping thousands every day who could not find other relief. Refuse the alcoholic substitutes.

WHAT'S THE REASON.

Many Hondo People in Poor Healh Without Knowing the Cause.

There are scores of people who drag out a miserable existence without realizing the cause of their suffering. Day after day they are racked with backache and headache; suffer from nervousness, dizziness, weakness, languor depression. Perhaps the kidneys have fallen behind in their work of filtering the blood and that may be the root of the trouble. Look to your kidneys—assist them in their work—give them the help they need. You can use no more highly recommended remedy than Doan's Kidney Pills.

Below is grateful testimony from a sufferer in this locality.

M. D. Wilson, Ditto, Texas, says: "I was a sufferer from gravel and anyone who has experienced the agony of that complaint will appreciate a remedy that will relieve it. Learning of Doan's Kidney Pills, I used them and they gave me immediate relief. I have been free from the trouble since."

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

HUSBAND RESCUED DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave Up in Despair. Husband Came to Rescue.

Catron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side.

The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good. I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without its tiring me, and am doing all my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of continuous success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.

The Boy Who Made Good

Just an average boy—no—he had a supreme belief in the Life that animated him. He believed that Life could do as much for him as anybody else provided he started and kept doing one thing at a time until he could do it well. Sounds easy, doesn't it? It is easy, and the results are always the same—success. "Tomorrow"—he omitted it. "Today and now", was his motto.

Big Show at San Antonio.

The Barnum & Bailey "Greatest Show on Earth" will exhibit at San Antonio Saturday, Oct. 3, for two performances and street parade will be given. In recent seasons the big circus has had spectacular features but this season the management has gone to untold expense in investing the big circus with a wonderfully pabrilliant pageant of Oriental splendor entitled "The Wizard Prince of Arabia." This colossal innovation is offered at the opening of the show, thereby doing away with the old, stereotyped "grand entree" idea which has been worked to death by all the tented aggregations throughout the land.

In this realistic reproduction of the glamorous, eventful days of the land of the "Thousand and One Nights," Barnum & Bailey engage the services of more than 2,000 persons which embraces the dancing activities of hundreds of gaily bedecked coryphees and a grand ballet effect at the finale which leaves a lasting impression.

The spectacle opens with an elaborately decorated setting of Arabic land where there is much confusion over the departure of the Prince and his five wizards who perform modern day miracles in helping their noble master conquer strange domains. The subsequent adventures of the Prince and his wizardly retinue which sets forth their native heath with horses gaily caparisoned and amid a great and gorgeous spectacle. In quick succession follows the invasion of King Babar's realm in India where by the magic aid of the five wizards, the Prince is enabled to win the heart and hand of the King's daughter. There's a magnificent wedding feast which is produced in kaleidoscopic splendor, teeming with life, action and color. The ballet finale was pronounced by the press of New York City to be the last word in circus pageantry.

In addition to the grand opening there is the usual circus program of mid-air sensation, daring feats on trapeze bar, tight wire and horseback by 350 arenic performers. Imported features galore, which includes the famous Icelandic troupe of athletes two troupes of Oriental plate and cup spinners and acrobats, the human flys walking head downward on the crystal mirror, the midget equestrian, Bird Millman, the Tango queen of the tight wire, the wonderful Weise troupe of equilibrists, a wild west exhibition of lassoing and broncho busting, the famous Schiavoni troupe of gymnasts, Imperial Viennese troupe of flying trapezists and a great array of stirring hippodrome events at the close. There are numerous other big features and all combined make Barnum & Bailey's circus the biggest and best.

The Barnum & Bailey circus carries everything imaginable from a baby lion to a tangoing elephant in the wild animal line; acts of a death-defying nature, novelties galore, six augmented bands, astonishing wild animal performers, startling equestrian features, arenic feats of strength and magic, a freak congress and a million and one amusement attractions that only a gigantic circus like Barnum & Bailey can offer for the price of one admission.

The great Free Street Parade will leave the show grounds promptly at 9 A. M., on the morning of show date.

Excursion rates on all railroads.

Don't fail to have the children see this "Greatest Show on Earth," and the "Children's Vision of Fairyland, The Wizard Prince of Arabia." And there are also clowns galore, 50 of them to delight the children.

Don't forget the date.

Sunset-Central Cattle Prizes.

Acting on the judgment and advice of the Federal and County agricultural officers and supervisors along the lines of the Sunset-Central, the Industrial and Immigration Department of that system has determined to carry the cattle prize competition, announced to the farmers some months since, into next year.

H. M. Mayo, head of the department in question, states that the determination to offer the blooded stock as prizes for cotton and corn production, was unfortunately delayed until the farmers had made their plans and had, in the majority of instances, planted their crops. This prevented the growers from entering the contest and seriously militated against the success of the project.

"We will carry the contest over to include the 1915 season instead of making the awards this year," said Mr. Mayo, "and will make an active canvass of our lines in ample time to insure a broad advertisement of the scheme, and the entry of farmers from every county. Our idea is not only to encourage the better production of crops, but a greater degree of interest in farm and food animals by the farmer, which will have the result of increasing his prosperity and better establish the doctrine of diversification."

A Guaranteed Laxative

Rexall ORDERLIES

We honestly believe we have the best bowel remedy ever made—the most pleasant-to-take, most permanently beneficial laxative for relief from the miseries and dangers arising from constipation.

Rexall Orderlies

taste like candy. They are soothing and very easy in action. They do not cause griping, nausea, purging or excessive looseness. They tend to tone and strengthen intestinal nerves and muscles. They promptly relieve constipation, and help to permanently overcome it.

Rexall Orderlies promote better spirits and better health. In all of these things they are vastly superior to old-fashioned, harsh salts and other purgatives, which are not only unpleasant to take but which usually leave the bowels in worse condition than before. We particularly recommend Rexall Orderlies for children, aged and delicate persons. In vest-pocket tin boxes. 12 tablets 10c, 36 tablets 25c, 80 tablets 50c. Sold only at

Following some excessively warm weather Tuesday, a rain of 1:22 inches fell here Tuesday night. Reports from over the state indicate that the rain was general and cooler weather has prevailed since. The rain for the most part fell very gently, doing but little damage to the cotton crop and was a welcome relief from the heat and dust that has been prevailing. Where the precipitation was heavier it will benefit fall pastures, gardens and small grain.

The fire Tuesday morning convinced the fire company that a quicker means of reaching fires should be provided. If an automobile could be trimmed down to suit and one of the chemical engines, with the necessary attachments and supplies, mounted thereon fires could be reached in a fraction of the time now required and the time thus saved might mean the preventing of a serious conflagration some time. It would cost no great amount to rebuild some used automobile in this way. What does the town think of the suggestion?

Acute Indigestion.

"I was annoyed for over a year by attacks of acute indigestion, followed by constipation," writes Mrs. M. J. Gallagher, Geneva, N. Y. "I tried everything that was recommended to me for this complaint but nothing did me much good until about four months ago I saw Chamberlain's Tablets advertised and procured a bottle of them from our druggist. I soon realized that I had gotten the right thing for they helped me at once. Since taking two bottles of them I can eat heartily without any bad effects." Sold by All Dealers.

Many a man is a failure because his whole philosophy of life is to the effect that a bad beginning maketh a good ending.

Diarrhoea Quickly Cured.

"My attention was first called to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as much as twelve years ago. At that time I was seriously ill with summer complaint. One dose of this remedy checked the trouble," writes Mrs. C. W. Florence, Rockfield, Ind. For sale by All Dealers.

Don't believe all you see. The tallest shaft in the cemetery doesn't always reach nearest to heaven.

Chamberlain's Liniment.

If you are ever troubled with aches, pains or soreness of the muscles, you will appreciate the good qualities of Chamberlain's Liniment. Many sufferers from rheumatism and sciatica have used it with the best results. It is especially valuable for lumbago and lame back. For sale by All Dealers.

The world is full of knockers, and the average man is looking for some other fellow to be his anvil.

Good for Biliousness.

"I took two of Chamberlain's Tablets last night, and I feel fifty per cent better than I have for weeks, says J. J. Firestone of Allegan, Mich. "They are certainly a fine article for biliousness." For sale by All Dealers.

A man sprinting away from his opportunities proves that the race is not always to the swift.

Apply a cotton cloth wet with Ballard's Snow Liniment to all wounds, cuts, burns, sores or blisters, and note its wonderful healing power. It is prompt and very effective. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by W. H. Windrow.

The MAGIC Washing Stick.

The Magic Washing Stick is not a soap, nor is it a washing powder, but a very peculiar article which makes dirty clothes clean and snowy white without a bit of rubbing, thus doing away with the hard work on washday. Washing colored clothes without fading, woolens without shrinking or hardening, and for lace and lace curtains it is simply fine. Guaranteed perfectly harmless and can be used with perfect safety on the most delicate fabric. Price 10c per Magic Stick or three for 25c. If dealers can't supply send stamps or money order to A. B. Richards Co., Sherman, Texas.

It's all right to take care of the pennies, but at the same time it isn't always the sense of humor that makes the dollars.

Everybody is liable to "catch cold" but those who give a cold proper attention never have serious lung diseases. It is neglect that makes them serious. Prudent persons use Ballard's Horehound Syrup as soon as the trouble appears and the cold is cured at once. Price 25c, 50c, and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by W. H. Windrow.

The novelty of falling in love soon palls on those who have done too much practicing on themselves.

Bad breath, bitter taste, dizziness and a general "no account" feeling is a sure sign of a torpid liver. Herbine is the medicine needed. It makes the liver active, vitalizes the blood, regulates the bowels and restores a fine feeling of energy and cheerfulness. Price 50c. Sold by W. H. Windrow.

Foresight is a gift that comes to a man when he gets so old he has nothing to look forward to.

A sore throat can be treated best from the outside. The throat should be rubbed gently with Ballard's Snow Liniment. Apply at night and cover with a cotton cloth bandage; by morning the soreness will disappear. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by W. H. Windrow.

It's all right to cultivate a thirst for knowledge, but it brings with it mighty few free lunches.

Invigorating to the Pale and Sickly

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"I advised the 'boys' when they enlisted for the Spanish war to take Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with them and have received many thanks for the advice given," writes J. H. Houghland, Eldon, Iowa. "No person whether traveling or at home should be without this great remedy." For sale by All Dealers.

Love sometimes starves itself to death trying to demonstrate that two can live as cheaply as one.

We take this method of thanking our many friends and patrons for the large number of letters we have received telling us of the truly wonderful results gained by the use of Hunt's Lightning Oil in the treatment of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Headache and other character of pain. We appreciate this spontaneous outburst of approval. A. B. Richards Medicine Co., Sherman, Texas.

Best for Constipation.

Mild and pleasant to take, Simmons' Liver Purifier is recognized as the best liver medicine now in use. It causes no unpleasant feeling, but gives new life and vigor to the liver. Sold in 25c yellow tin cans only.

We never quite realize the sting of hard words until we have to take them back.

ROBERTSON IS MAKING GOOD

Dave Robertson, the young outfielding recruit of the New York Giants, gives promise of being a budding Ty Cobb or Tris Speaker. Robertson has won for himself a regular berth in the Giants' outfield by his ability to clout the ball, especially when there are men on the bases, and his team is badly in need of hits. THE RURAL PREACHER

The Pastor Should Be a Director of the Moral, Economic and Social Life of the Community.

(By Peter Radford.)

The most indispensable servant to society is that of the ministry, for without the high moral precepts and lofty examples of those who walk and talk with God, man would be little more than an naimal. These divinely commissioned custodians of virtue and masters of the forces of civilization have leavened human nature, sweetened humanity and given life its savor, but their glorious achievements of the past are eclipsed by the marvelous possibilities of the new rural civilization now confronting them, ushering in a new world of usefulness.

Strong Leadership Needed.

A human life can best be measured by service and the preacher is divinely appointed to teach and to serve. The rural church has in the main fulfilled its evangelical mission, but the economic and social requirements of the age now rest heavily upon it awaiting the leadership and inspiration of the church.

It is as much a part of the duty of a minister to inspire us to own a home on earth as it is to exhort us to build mansions in the skies; to persuade us to fill the mud holes from our homes to the church, as to preach of the golden streets of the new Jerusalem; to teach us how to find the markets as well as to teach us how to reach the holy city; to teach our young girls to wear modest clothing here on earth as well as to teach them to wear a crown in glory. To teach our young people how to play constructive games while they are here as well as to teach them to play on a harp with a thousand strings in the land beyond the grave; to teach us how to live as well as teach us how to pray.

There must be a readjustment of the evangelical and an extension of institutional work of the church. The frailties of human nature strongly attracted the pioneer pastor and pity has flowed freely for the life with sin, but the building of individual character and training of the emotions of human life are entitled to more earnest consideration.

The farmer needs the personal touch of the pastor. He seldom comes in direct contact with his hallowing influence except when he is baptized, married and buried. It is a time-honored custom for our pastors to visit their rural congregations once a month, preach a sermon, take up a collection, eat dinner and hurry back to the city. We approve it all, except hurrying back to the city. To interpret the life of the farmer and construct Christian character in the community, the preacher must live with us and share our trials and tribulations.

Constructive Work for the Pastor

There is an emptiness in the life of rural communities and we want preachers who can weave into the social fibre educational pastimes, profitable pleasures and instructive amusements. Too often we find the games of our young people a search for a suggestion in immorality and a stepping stone to sin. The pastor should supervise the growing lives of young people, approve their amusements, create expressions of joy and pleasure that make for Christian character and bless their lives with Christian modesty.

A pastor in a neighborhood studying the economic, social, moral and educational problems of the community, presenting fresh visions of potential possibilities and native power with beauty and new meaning, interpreting the thought-life of the community and administering to their daily needs will contribute more toward the advancement of a locality than a dozen preachers who occupy the pulpit at irregular intervals, preaching on subjects foreign to the life of the community.

Too long has the farm furnished the cities with their great preachers until today the rural church is the gang-way to city pulpits. The current should be reversed. The power of the pulpit is most needed in the country where the fundamental forces of human life originate and where human nature buds and blossoms into a glorious fruition.

Why Rural Churches Languish.

The destiny of a rural church is inseparably associated with the economic and social progress of the community. If a community is content with poor crops and bad farming methods, the church attains only a small amount of success or fails altogether. If a community employs modern farming methods, improved farming machinery and builds good roads, the result will be shown not only in material benefits but the church will attain the highest degree of success. You can build a city on a rock or even on the sand, but you can't build a rural church in a non-progressive community. No church is more prosperous than the country which supports it and the pastor cannot build his church without first building the community.

Many a rural church is languishing or has died altogether because of bad economics and many pastors have found that it takes work as well as prayers to make their church a success.

THE CHURCH AS A SOCIAL CENTER

A Broader Sphere for Religion. New Field for the Rural Church.

(By Peter Radford.)

The social duty of the rural church is as much a part of its obligations as its spiritual side. In expressing its social interest the modern rural church does not hesitate to claim that it is expressing a true religious instinct and the old-time idea that the social instincts should be starved while the spiritual nature was over-fed with solid theological food, is fast giving way to a broader interpretation of the functions of true religion. We take our place in the succession of those who have sought to make the world a fit habitation for the children of man when we seek to study and understand the social duty of the rural church.

The true christian religion is essentially social—its tenets of faith being love and brotherhood and fellowship. While following after righteousness, the church must challenge and seek to reform that social order in which moral life is expressed. While cherishing ideals of service, the rural church which attains the fullest measure of success is that which enriches as many lives as it can touch, and in no way can the church come in close contact with its members as through the avenue of social functions.

The country town and the rural community need a social center. The church need offer no apology for its ambition to fill this need in the community, if an understanding of its mission brings this purpose into clear consciousness.

The structure of a rural community is exceedingly complex; it contains many social groups, each of which has its own center, but there are many localities which have but one church and although such a church cannot command the interest of all the people, it is relieved from the embarrassment of religiously divided communities.

Social Needs Imperative.

The average country boy and girl have very little opportunity for real enjoyment, and have, as a rule, a vague conception of the meaning of pleasure and recreation. It is to fill this void in the lives of country youth that the rural church has risen to the necessity of providing entertainment as well as instruction to its membership among the young. The children and young people of the church should meet when religion is not even mentioned. It has been found safest for them to meet frequently under the direction and care of the church. To send them into the world with no social training exposes them to grave perils and to try to keep them out of the world with no social privileges is sheer folly. There is a social nature to both old and young, but the social requirements of the young are imperative. The church must provide directly or indirectly some modern equivalent for the husking bee, the quilting bee and the singing schools of the old days. In one way or another the social instincts of our young people must have opportunity for expression, which may take the form of clubs, parties, picnics or other forms of amusements. One thing is certain, and that is that the church cannot take away the dance, the card party and the theatre unless it can offer in its place a satisfying substitute in the form of more pleasing recreation.

Universal Instinct for Play.

In providing for enjoyment the church uses one of the greatest methods by which human society has developed. Association is never secure until it is pleasurable; in play the instinctive aversion of one person for another is overcome and the social mood is fostered. Play is the chief educational agency in rural communities and in the play-day of human childhood social sympathy and social habits are evolved. As individuals come together in social gatherings, their viewpoint is broadened, their ideals are lifted and finally they constitute a cultured and refined society.

It is plain, therefore, that the church which aims at a perfected society must use in a refined and exalted way the essential factors in social evolution and must avail itself of the universal instinct for play. If the church surrounds itself with social functions which appeal to the young among its membership, it will fill a large part of the lamentable gap in rural pleasures and will reap the richest reward by promoting a higher and better type of manhood and womanhood.

An Adventurous Young Movie Star

VIVIAN RICH, the American—
Mutual Star

She Is Just Out of Her 'Teens and Very Pretty.

Vivian Rich, the talented leading lady of Flying A popularity, has just bidden goodby to her teens. Although very young, Miss Rich has had years of experience both on the stage and in the silent drama. She is tall, dark and slender and possesses a pair of very sympathetic eyes, with a smile that is at all times bewitching and irresistible.

Miss Rich is fond of out of door life, and this was one of the reasons that prompted her to desert the stage for the movies. She motors a great deal and lately has purchased one of the best equipped cars in Santa Barbara. Miss Rich takes a great deal of interest in young girls who aspire to a dramatic career, and her advice and sound judgment have won for her a host of friends.

There are few motion picture actresses who so delight in adventurous stunts as does Miss Rich. She has ridden freight car brake beams to provide a "punch;" she has jumped from rapidly moving motorcars; she has dived into water fully fifty feet below the pier, and her horsewomanship is as daring as it is graceful.

MARTHA.

A LITTLE girl,
Barefooted, ragged, with neglected hair,
Eyes full of laughter, neck and shoulders bare,
A thin slip of a girl, like a new moon,
Sure to be rounded into beauty soon;
A creature men would worship and adore,
Though now in mean habiliments she bore
A pail of water, dripping through the street
And bathing as she went her naked feet.
It was a pretty picture, full of grace,
The slender form, the delicate, thin face;
The swaying motion as she hurried by,
The shining feet, the laughter in her eye
That o'er her face in ripples gleamed and glanced
As in her pail the shifting sunbeams danced

NATIONAL FARMERS HOLD CONVENTION

Government Aid Sought in Marketing Cotton—Work of Peter Radford Commended.

Fort Worth, Texas.—The eleventh annual meeting of the Farmers' Educational and Co-operative Union of America came to a close in this city today. More than two thousand delegates were present, representing the various state organizations and covering an area from coast to coast and from the great lakes to the gulf.

President Chas. S. Barrett, presided over the sessions and introduced the various speakers. The keynote of the convention was the action of the convention in asking governmental aid in financing the cotton crop of the south.

"The greatest crisis in years brought on by the European war, faces the United States," said President Barrett in his opening address. "There is only one thing to do and that is for the United States government to buy three or four million bales of cotton at not less than ten cents a pound from the farmers of the south to be held until a higher price may be obtained and, when sold, the profit, minus the expense of handling to be remitted to the farmers."

The convention went on record as favoring the Henry bill introduced before Congress recently, which favors the buying of cotton by the government as a relief of the present situation. This bill was drafted with the co-operation of President Barrett, who believes that it fully covers the situation.

Provision was made for the raising of a fund of $200,000 for the purpose of maintaining a committee to devise plans for relieving the depressing results of the European war. This committee will include a member from every organized state, together with the national officials and the national executive committee. The committee will be in charge of Peter Radford of Texas, who was appointed chairman, and before the adjournment of the session more than $10,000 of the fund had already been pledged.

A resolution was passed condemning the present war and recommending the establishment of an international parliament and an international court, looking to universal peace and good will between the nations of the world.

Child Labor Condemned.

A resolution was passed endorsing the bill providing for the elimination of products from interstate commerce which are manufactured in factories employing children less than fourteen years of age or those employing children under sixteen years of age more than eight hours.

A marketing plan introduced by Harry Tracy of Texas, in which a practical system of marketing farm products was outlined was heartily endorsed by resolution.

Peter Radford Commended.

Referring to the work of the officers of the Farmers' Union, Mr. Barrett paid a high tribute to the manner in which they have co-operated with him. "They have stood steadfastly by me in every call to duty," said Mr. Barrett, "and in every endeavor for the general good. They are true, faithful and conscientious men. I want to pay especial tribute to one individual, Peter Radford. If I should be asked to name one man in the Union who has done more to lighten my own load, who stood ready day or night for service, who doesn't even wait for the distress signal, then I'd have to say Peter Radford. Men like Peter Radford keep one's faith sound, his courage high and renew belief in humanity."

Union Growing Rapidly.

President Barrett stated that the Union was fast growing in numbers and in strength. Twenty-seven states in the Union are included in its membership and the total number of members aggregate more than eight million. It is the boast of the Union that all its members are men who are actual farmers and that no one who does not till the soil, is eligible for membership in the organization.

The officials of the Union were unanimously re-elected for the coming year as follows: C. S. Barrett, Georgia, president; A. V. Swift, Vice President, Oregon, A. C. Davis, Secretary, Arkansas.

Most people talk too much—and not always because they have something to say.
